Inspired by: T.S. Elliott "The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock

Verse1
A7
Neon nights at the cabaret
Gsus2
Alone again in my hideaway
A7
Met her on the street of, cheap hotels
D# F
and the moon-lit dives serving oyster shells

Whisky and rum, fell for her charms
Woke in the sun, angel in my arms
Thought it was love but now I search in vain
The flame in my heart burns like acid rain

Pre Chorus
D G
Tropical heat, indecision
E E7
Disco beat wore down my inhibitions

Chorus
A7 D/A
Trinity Girl, will you return?
A7 D/A
Trinity Girl, when will I learn?
A7 F
Trinity Girl I don't mean to offend
D# D
But baby can I take you for another spin?

Verse 2
Worked from the mornings through the afternoons
Measured my life with coffee spoons
Slip through the terrace, so discrete
Prepare a face to meet the faces that I'll meet

Town locked down for a tropical storm
Living on the edge has become my norm
"Night Moves" playing on the radio
In the rooms where the women come and go
